

SUPPORT FOR A HEALTHY WORKFORCE

The National Center for Farmworker Health helps agricultural employers around the country coordinate free and low-cost, convenient health and wellbeing services for their workers

FACILITATE HEALTHCARE SERVICES FOR FARMWORKERS

Make connections with local free or low-cost healthcare providers for farmworkers, regardless of immigration status

LANGUAGE INTERPRETATION HELP

Identify languages spoken among your workforce and provide referrals to trained interpreters who can support improved communications

TRAININGS FOR AGRICULTURAL EMPLOYERS ON FARMWORKER HEALTH TOPICS

Free virtual trainings around health topics for employers, crew leaders, and workers, such as heat stress, infectious diseases, and chronic diseases

MULTILINGUAL PRINT, VIDEO, AND AUDIO HEALTH MATERIALS FOR FARMWORKERS

Culturally tailored health education materials on a variety of topics available in Spanish, Haitian Creole, and multiple Mexican and Central American Indigenous languages

Contact Information:
Matt Solberg, Agricultural Employer
Engagement Coordinator

 512-333-0314

 solberg@ncfh.org

 <http://www.ncfh.org/>

NCFH

National Center for Farmworker Health, Inc.